No 26 OFFICIAL NEWSLETTER FOR FIGURE SKATING IN THE WESTERN CAPE JAN 2010

Dear WP skating family

As we pack away the Christmas decorations, we reflect on the year 2009 which was, as usual a busy one for WP figure skating.

Reflections:

The first half saw 4 Continents in Feb, Senior Worlds in March, ISU Synchro course in April, Cape Interprovincial in May, and Junior Blades in early June – then moved on to Gauteng Interprovincial in July, WP Championships in August, the Shulman's visit in September, followed by Nationals in Pretoria. The Black Panther Championships combined with the Inter-Club in October, and finished with the annual Charity Gala hosted by the Sunday Night Club in December.

International participation:

Kim Falconer in Belgium and Rebecca Crous in Hungary, November/December.

Western Province reigned supreme in both the Gauteng Inter-Provincial, where our skaters brought home the shield, and at the National Championships in Pretoria, where once again Junior, Senior and overall Ster Trophy returned to Cape Town. Another important award at Nationals is the Max Staub Star for service to SAFSA and this was awarded to Brenda Allely and Helga Pinto.

Thank You skaters, coaches, and parents for making this a successful year. And thank you to Anne Falconer for handling the competition entries throughout the year so efficiently. (detailed results on: www.safsa.org.za)

The Nationals Fundraiser held at the Barnyard Theatre on Wed 16th September, for the sole purpose of assisting skaters with their Nationals expenses, was badly supported, and we just scraped through to break even.

Those who did support were rewarded, not only with a great fun evening that the Barnyard provides, but with receiving their profit share of tickets sold, in addition to the allocation of general assistance given to all skaters from the WP coffers.

We appeal to all to support these fundraising ventures in the future, as this is presently the only way possible to raise funds towards away expenses and a little effort can be rewarding in the long run.

Medal tests took place on 1st Sunday monthly until December 09, with an additional test on 30th August ably managed by Angelica Davids the SAFSA WP test secretary.

2010 Test dates: first Sunday of each month commencing February 7th subject to sufficient entries.

Patches: Kindly ensure that your patches are paid by the 7th of each month to avoid the embarrassment of being asked to leave the ice.

Coaches: Nathan Bashkier has joined the WP coaching fraternity migrating from his judging seat, and Carol Brown has returned to coach.

We welcome them both to the fold.

Existing coaches, Dantin, Vage, Barbie, Dino, Oula and Anita have also all renewed their contracts.

Sadly, Barbie lost her father on Christmas Day after a long illness. Our deepest sympathies to her and the family during this very difficult time.

Pro ams:

Our pro-ams, Megan Allely, Angelica Davids, Justin and Abigail Pietersen and Quiesto Spieringshoek return to coaching in the new year.

We also welcome Tiana Stanton as our latest Pro am.

All pro ams work under guidance of one of the WP coaches to whom they are assigned, and any problems should be discussed with this designated coach accordingly.

Contact details for coaches and pro ams are available on The Ice Station's website: www.icerink.co.za

WP committee news:

WP Synchro Trials for the 2010/2011 season take place on Sunday morning 17th January starting at 6am. If you have not yet completed a form & paid the R50 trials fee, contact Tiana urgently.
